NCCC brothers & sisters 🤍, in line with this year's church theme of connecting lives and our local community 🌱, we warmly invite you to join this Prayer Gathering with churches across West Bridgford 🤝. It's a great opportunity to connect with other churches in our area and see what God is doing in the WB community 🔥

This will be a first step for us to get to know other brothers & sisters and churches in WB (and for others to get to know us at NCCC too!) 😊. There will be time to share refreshments 🍪 🍷 and to come together in unity to pray for the WB community 🙏

If you have any questions, feel free to contact Angus 📩

Speak to Your MP about Hong Kong!

Hymn of May – Who You Say I Am

Introduction:

This song is written based on John 8:34-41 and John 14:1-4. In a generation where identity crisis penetrates through different levels. Our career, family, achievements may contribute to shaping us, but these are never our ultimate identity. Who do you say you are?

This song says that we are sinners who by grace through faith have been saved through Jesus and have become children of God. That is who we are and that is the only identity that ultimately matters – who God says you are.

- ❖ We are still short of elected members in the Church Council. May the Lord rise up potential leaders to serve as part of Your mission through all ministries at NCCC!
- ❖ Praise the Lord! A few people decided to follow Jesus at the music tour event last week. Please pray for them as they start a new life in Christ!

If you would like to post any notice or prayer items, please contact the church administrator at enquiries@nottinghamccc.org.uk by Monday evening for inclusion in the following week's bulletin.
