🔥 > Turn the Battle (UK & Ireland) Prayer 21-23/1

Whether you joined us online at the 7 a.m. prayer meeting or set aside time to pray on your own over the 3 days, we are truly encouraged by your willingness to take part in this prayer initiative—connecting as one body, aligning our hearts with God's, and interceding for His Church, this nation, and beyond.

We hope this brief initiative has sparked something new in your daily walk with God and that it will help nurture a deeper, shared rhythm of prayer within our church community—much like the early church in Acts—so we can draw closer to God and prepare ourselves for all that He will lead us to do this year. We would love to explore ways to commit and grow even further in prayer and worship together. If you have any reflections or feedback, please don't hesitate to share them with our ministers.

Seating Arrangement

Praise the Lord! Our congregation size is increasing and we nearly reach capacity in combined services. Therefore we kindly request you to sit towards the middle and the front when you arrive. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Hymn of February – Yet Not I But Through Christ In Me

Introduction: The theme of “Yet Not I But Through Christ In Me” is rooted in Galatians 2:20. In Paul’s letter to the church of Galatia, he was urging the church to understand that his transformation from being someone who persecuted Christians to fervently preaching Christianity to others was not by his own power, but by the power of Jesus Christ. He also wanted the church to experience the joy and freedom of being transformed by Jesus. He ends the letter by saying that he was to boast nothing but the cross of Jesus. Everything he did was in, for and through Christ Jesus. Do you want the power of Jesus, which drove the impossible transform in Paul, to transform you daily?

Updates and Prayer Needs from Missionaries / Partner Organisations – Thorsten and Kerstin Prills

Praise God for our new roles and for how He is using us to bless missionaries around the world.

Pray for Thorsten as he helps Crosslinks develop a new cross-cultural orientation programme. Ask that it would be effective and prepare missionaries well to bring God's Word to God's world.

Pray for Kerstin for wisdom and cultural sensitivity in counselling sessions. Pray that she would connect well with each person and that the Lord would use her to help clients face their challenges.

Pray for Dedridge Baptist Church as they seek a new minister. Ask that the Lord would raise up a godly pastor who can lead and preach well.
